

County-to-County Migration 2004 - 2005

In-Migration:		Out-Migration:
Exemptions:		Exemptions:
Non-Migrants	622,086		622,086
Total Migrants	38,038		30,153
U.S. migrants	36,514		29,096
AZ migrants	8,377		8,975
Different state	28,137		20,121
Foreign migrants	1,524		5,665
Leading Counties:		Leading Counties:
1 Maricopa	3,426	Maricopa	4,634
2 Cochise	1,373	Pinal	1,126
3 San Diego	1,326	Cochise	913
4 Los Angeles	1,252	Santa Cruz	661
5 Pinal	860	San Diego	635
6 Santa Cruz	860	Los Angeles	599
7 Clark (Las Vegas)	661	Clark	599
8 Orange (Anaheim)	477	Yavapai	339
9 Riverside (Los Angeles)	467	Coconino	271
10 San Bernardino	445	Riverside	249
11 Coconino	384	El Paso (Colorado Springs)	244
12 Santa Clara (San Jose)	342	Navajo	243
13 Yuma	324	King (Seattle)	242
14 Cook (Chicago)	306	Yuma	234
15 King (Seattle)	285	Bernalillo (Albuquerque)	232
16 El Paso (Colorado Springs)	284	Orange	230
17 Yavapai	265	Bexar (San Antonio)	205
18 Bernalillo (Albuquerque)	255	Sedgwick, KS (Wichita)	195
19 Navajo	248	San Bernardino	191
20 El Paso (El Paso, Tx)	238	Cook (Chicago)	180
21 Salt Lake	224	Salt Lake	163
22 Bexar (San Antonio)	198	Graham	160
23 Tarrant (Fort Worth)	195	Honolulu	150
24 Sacramento	193	El Paso (El Paso)	140
25 Pierce (Tacoma)	174	Harris (Dallas)	136
		Tarrant (Fort Worth)	136

Rank:

As shown by total exemptions from federal tax returns.

Note that exemptions do not always reflect population flows.

Tax returns tend to undercount the poor, the undocumented and the elderly.

These data are simply indicative of the source of our migration into and out of Pima Co.

Source: Statistics of Income, Bureau of Internal Revenue